

ACCOMPANYING PERSONS PROGRAMMES

Shopping and sunbathing are pleasurable pursuits, but they should not be the only items on the agenda of spouses or partners of business delegates visiting the city. Cape Town is the Jewel of Africa and it has a wealth of interesting places to visit and intriguing people to meet. We're determined that they should enrich your stay and make it unforgettable.

Great Gardens Walkabout

The Cape Peninsula is one of the world's six floral kingdoms and the City of Cape Town boasts some of the most exquisite private gardens in Southern Africa.

Visit the Wine Route - Constantia

Brandy was first produced at the Cape in the 1800's. Accompanying persons can learn more about this fascinating, age-old process by going on the Brandy Route, which snakes through the Cape Winelands from Stellenbosch to Paarl, Wellington and Worcester.

Cape of Herbs

Go on a guided tour of one of the many interesting herb gardens in Cape Town before listening to a short talk by an expert in the field on which herbs are particularly suited to Cape's mild Mediterranean climate, and their many uses, from the medical to culinary to cosmetic.

The Architectural face of the City

From Cape Dutch to avant-garde, Cape Town's eclectic architecture tells the story of the city's history. Go on a guided tour of interesting Cape Town buildings including Cape Dutch gems like Groot Constantia and the Castle of Good Hope.

Tour the Townships

You can't visit Cape Town without taking in township life, where more than two million Capetonians live. Each township has its own attractions, its own character. There are special tours on offer where you can experience the unique township culture, enjoy a cup of tea at one of the many hospitable bedandbreakfast establishments, drink African beer in a shebeen (local pub), visit a craft market, or savour the sounds of township jazz.

